

PUBLIC

LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 1897.

ONE CENT.

TOMORROW! SURE!

THE FINALLY LAYOUT

When "They Say" Deboe Will Certainly Be Chosen.

LIEBERTH IS NOW OUT OF LYNE

Special to The Public Ledger.

FRANKFORT, April 27th.

As stated yesterday, there was no election, only the formal ballot being taken, when the Joint Assembly adjourned.

Representative Lieberth of Newport is now "out of line," but his friends say he has given most positive assurances that he will vote for Deboe tomorrow.

On the other hand, it is claimed that he will not vote for Deboe, and that "there are others."

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. N. K. Keebo is visiting relatives in Frankfort.

Mr. Henry Schubert of Dover was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Norris of Manchester is visiting Mrs. Savage at Petham's Farm.

Mrs. Henry Ingraham and children of Paris are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sharp.

Miss Alice Wheeler has returned to Cincinnati after a brief visit to friends here.

Mrs. B. Yago and son Frank of Bellevue have returned home after a visit to Mrs. Friston.

Miss Ada Stockdale has returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in Fairview.

Mr. Ben Davis of Vancouer has returned with his parents Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis of Market street.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 23, and send it in.

Fire Insurance—John C. Everett.

Special of Second hand Wheels and 1896 Models at J. T. Kackley & Co.

Soda Water of unexcelled flavor and quality at Chenehow's Soda Fountain.

Ladies, do you want to see the Queen of Wheels? It's all, call and see Queen Victoria at J. T. Kackley & Co's.

The Rev. J. S. Sims spoke for the Oddfellows at the Anniversary celebration at Helena last evening, and reports a most delightful occasion.

Mr. Darwin T. Fenner, aged 28, and Miss Cora B. Harvey, aged 22, both of Cincinnati, were married yesterday by Judge M. C. Hutchins.

An order was entered in the County Court records yesterday declaring that John T. Bramel, Justice of District No. 1, has vacated his office.

Mr. James H. Hunter, a hustling merchant of Bluebell Springs, was a pleasant caller on THE LEDGER yesterday. Mr. Hunter is one of Nicholas county's wide awake business men, a staunch Republican, and a faithful friend of THE LEDGER.

A postal has been received from Thomas Young, No. 10 Taylor street, Cincinnati, the son of the author of Madison Johnson of this locality died there April 23rd, that no one claims his property, and he wants to know what shall be done with her body.

H. C. Browning, a prominent citizen of Fleming county, died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. S. A. Dickey, Saturday morning and was buried in the cemetery at Flemingsburg Sunday afternoon. The funeral was largely attended, "Uncle Clay," as he was familiarly known, having been a useful man in his community.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER:

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADERSHIP WEATHER STATION.

White stratosphere—Fair.

Blue—Rain or snow.

With black clouds—Snow.

Cloudy—Cloudy.

Clouds—Rain or snow.

Clouds—Cloudy—no change.

Wind—No wind.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

Collected for its great leavening strength throughout the country. Food against all and all forms of advertising common to the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

OUR LITER BOX

(The Editor of THE LERNER is not responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents: but no one can be held responsible. We would never in this department, and not advertising excess or political arguments.

OUR AGENTS,
The following are authorized Agents for
THE PUBLIC CALLER in their respective cities:

Mr. Frank W. Rawes.
Sister B. G. Griswold.
Sister J. J. Deane.
Sister J. J. Johnson.
Vanderbilt—Mrs. Jessie Stewart.
Vanderbilt—Mrs. Jessie Stewart.
Augusta—Leander Tully.
Augusta—Frank C. Tully.
Wellesley Springs—J. H. Hunter.
Mt. Olive—Jacob Thomas.

Subscribers will save the trouble of letter writing by sending their subscriptions to the Agent at their address.

MOUNT OLIVET NEWS.

Current Happenings In and Around the Pleasant Capital of Robertson.

Judge Tilton attended Cynthiana Court. J. W. Holmes is in Cincinnati this week.

All the early gardens are up and growing nicely.

Tom Osgood of Cincinnati was a Court Day visitor.

Marshal James Poe will open a new barber-shop.

F. M. Young has put a large awning in front of his store.

J. B. Cray and family are visiting relatives at Millersburg.

The shutting down of the flouring mills is proving a great inconvenience to the people.

Tom Woodward has bought a supply of varnishes and brushes and taken the road polishing furniture.

Mr. Olivet, with a population of less than 400, has 20 widows, 16 old maid, 7 widowers and 18 old bachelors.

The town is nearly depopulated now days, the creeks and rivers being the attractive points. Several fine strings of fish have been caught.

William Wormald and Banks Durrett, coal dealers of Mayville, were here Tues day. Wormald's is a popular yard with Robertson coal consumers.

The Kinniconckers have not been heard from since leaving here last Tues day. Probably they are waiting for a railway connection here in their trip.

Robertson has long odds the small Negro population of any county in this section of the state, and the majority are generally industrious, thrifty and well to do.

Taylor Bros. at Washington are getting quite a trade from this locality and the vicinity of Sardis. Cheap goods and advertising will draw the people and their money.

It's all a fake about the airship being seen in this county. Some sensationalist for the daily press probably imbed too much moonshine and looked darkly through his spectacles.

John M. Kirk of Washington bought a lot of feeding grain in the county last week. John Marshall of Sardis also bought twenty-four head. Prices not said, but said to be good.

Henry Jefferson of Shannon, Dr. W. H. Anderson and Colonel Bob Marshall, Sardis; R. C. Beatty, Clayville; Younger Alexander, Brookville; Andy Howard, Cincinnati, were among our Court Day visitors.

Cholera is playing havoc with Sheeler & Butcher's dogs of Piqua. They have already lost ten head and have about ten more very sick with the same disease. Jeff. Robertson's Cedar has four sick. These are the only dogs in the county.

where the disease is raging so far as learned.

Claude Clary of Shannon was here Sunday.

An effort will be made to reorganize the cornet band.

The common school census of Mt. Olivet shows 150 children of school age.

Over 300 hogs were bought by Mason county buyers in Robertson last week.

Mr. Olivet has regularly organized Sunday schools and all are well attended.

Rev. Cargle filled the pulpit at the Main Street Methodist Church Sunday morning and night.

Charles Bujarsky, a former baker of Mt. Olivet, failed in his application for the Postville Postoffice.

The officer in command, that once was a boy of great constancy, now has but little. Thus do the time degenerates.

Attorney O. R. Bright and Miss Jessie Lyle of Elizabethtown were visitors to Mt. Olivet Saturday, guests of the Louisiana Hotel.

Judge Deming is in Washington City and will file application and endorsements for a Federal appointment. Success crown his efforts.

Kickers against Governor Bradley should not lose sight of the fact that United States Senator Deboe is a Bradley man from top to bottom.

Colonel Robert Buckler is in the Queen City this week on professional business. The Colonel is a humorist and has a good and growing practice.

Dave Deming is one of the thriest young farmers in the county. He will have nearly 100 acres of land in cultivation this year. He is also a stock-grower of no small size.

Governor Bradley appears to be a very much sly man yet, as the result of the Senatorial contest would evidence. He and Dr. Deboe are fast friends, have always been and will so continue.

The heavy freeze last week did not injure the fruit. Trees of every variety are loaded with bloom. Even the apricots escaped injury. This is one of the best fruit-growing counties in the state.

If the same amount of effort had been put forth last fall by the self-sacrificing patriots who are now moving heaven and earth, as it were, for Federal "pie," McKinley's majority in Kentucky would have exceeded 50,000.

Frank Tudor bought the storehouses of W. H. Hunter in Robertson last Friday $400, a very low price. W. M. Bratton bought the Dishes dwelling on Main street, known as the Disher House, for $900. The R. E. Wilson tract of land, containing 49 acres, was bought by John Aschafft at $11 75 an acre.

There is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

While the people of the publicans and professed Judge Hays, they are perfectly satisfied with the selection of Dr. Deboe for the United States Senatorship.

It there is one thing the people of Robertson is noted for it is an abundance of good things to eat at all seasons of the year. Go where you will, into the mansion or the humble cabin on the creek, and you will always find a plenty of provisions and of every variety. Very, very, people live and eat to live.

A Hero of the War.

During the attack upon Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the gun in his hands and shouting, "They have beat us!" And then went back to the fort.

That which might have harmed him, cold in death was now harmless but iron.

During the battle of Fort Sumter, a bombshell exploded in the fort, killing, wounding, and capturing, fell within ten feet of a squad of men. One man, however, was not a man moved, all except one. This man was a little Irishman, however, jumped quickly to his feet, and, clutching the